

CHAPTER 96.

[Published April 12, 1867.]

AN ACT legalizing the county boards of supervisors, and providing for the election of county supervisors.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Election of certain supervisors legalized.

SECTION 1. The election of supervisors in the even-numbered assembly districts in each of the organized counties of this state, at the general election held on the 6th day of November, 1866, and the election of supervisors at large at such election, is hereby legalized and declared valid.

Terms of office of supervisors.

SECTION 2. The supervisors elected in and for the even-numbered districts, shall hold their offices, respectively, until the first Monday of January, A. D. 1868, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified; and each supervisor at large elected at such election, shall hold his office until the first Monday of January, A. D. 1869, and until his successor shall be elected and qualified; and supervisors elected in and for the odd-numbered districts, shall hold their offices, respectively, until the first Monday of January, A. D. 1869, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified.

Annual election of supervisors.

SECTION 3. At each general election supervisors shall be elected, to take the place of those whose term of office shall expire in the month of January next succeeding such election.

Repealed.

SECTION 4. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 8, 1867.
